

Dept. of Political Science and International Relations

The Department of Political Science and International Relations is offering the M.A. program since 1981 and the Ph.D. program since 1984. The Graduate Program reflects the methodological diversity of the discipline in order to offer various opportunities for graduate students to concentrate on their specific field of interest. The major fields are political thoughts and theories, political history, comparative politics, international relations, political economy, and Korean politics.

The Department of Political Science and International Relations aims to train students to become specialists, who will engage in domestic and international affairs by offering a variety of opportunities for students to understand and develop theories in order to analyze domestic and international politics in a science manner. Our graduates will play an important role in society as scholars who are specialists to cope with the influence of regional integration and globalization, and as elites to work for diverse organizations to promote human peace and welfare.
